SECTION B

Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each.

51.

Last week, a debate was held at kabamba model primary school in Masindi District. The motion of the debate was “A Radio Is Better Than A television”. The chairperson of the debate, Hon.Rucia Kadaga,invited the main speakers to take up their seats. The timekeeper, Hon.Joshua Oceng, stipulated the time. He said that each prime speaker was to use seven minutes. The first three minutes were not to be interrupted, the next three minutes would attract interruptions, and the speaker would summarise their views in the last minute.

The first speaker to take to the floor was Hon.Bob Sentamu who spoke in favour of the motion. He said that a radio was cheap to buy, maintain and to repair. Next Hon.Paul Kintu from the opposition side said; “unlike a radio, the television is the best since it shows pictures. The viewers can easily learn fashion and style. Besides that, a television helps to kill boredom by telecasting movies, cartoons football and music.” Most of the children were very excited after Hon.Kintu is submission. The, there came Hon.Mark Rukundo. He was a well-known Orator because of he was verbose and pompous. Everybody cheered him loudly as he took to the podium. Every point he gave was applauded with excitement. He ended by saying that a radio was by far more important than a television. After all the speakers had urged their views it was time for the debaters to cast their votes. Guess what! The votes tallied equal! It was at this moment that the chairperson was asked to cast her vote to tilt the balance. She voted in favour of the opposition!

It's both sorrow and joy
In Mr Bate's home
For Sanyu has gone
To another man's house
To start a family
One to be her own

It's all mirth and joy
In Mr Kirunda's home
For a new member has come
Oscar's better half
He's no longer a bachelor
But a husband and a father- to- be!

But who will help with work
At Mr Bate's home
Maybe the only remaining daughter
The little Zawadi will
For the father accepted
The dowry and bride price!

It's all ululation of joy
In Mr Kirunda's compound
People from near and far
To party and to witness
Oscar and Sanyu
Are husband and wife!
