

- 1). of (2). stationer's (3).which
- (4). bitten (5). even (6). dyed
- (7). jointly (8).breathe(9). stranger
- (10).repetitions (11).itself (12).empower
- (13).wore (14).electoral (15). smooths
- (16). idea of; having a large distance from the top distance to the bottom.
- 17). idea of; putting something quickly into a liquid and taking it out.
- 18). falls/lowers/drops/reduces/lessens
- (19). after noon(20). media/mediums
- (21). waiters' salaries
- (22).We should always wear a mask to keep safe.
- (23). About whom are the prefects talking?
- (24). registration
- (25).depart/departure/departs
- (26). baker, carpenter, doctor, farmer
- 27). sparse, special, sponsor, sprinkle
- (28). publish/publicize
- (29). aerogrammes/aerograms
- (30.) comfortably
- (31).The poor mechanic has repaired barely eight vehicles since yesterday.
- 32). Whenever my aunt wants to read story books, she visits the library.
- 33). Tying a prisoner with ropes is illegal.
- 34). A magazine is more important than a brochure.
- 35). Would you rather bake than knead dough?
- 36). Our school environment is too dusty for us to be proud of.
- 37). The English Dictionary comprises very many new words.
- 38). The more water they gave their dairy cows, the higher the milk yields became.
- 39). Micheal may travel to Kabarole either on a motorcycle or on a bicycle.
- 40). The waitress has been ordered by the by the chef to put the cutlery on the dining tables.
- 41). Most of the learners in village schools are shy because they seldom hold debates.
- 42). How does a buffalo look?
- 43). The girls said that their teacher did not like undisciplined pupil in the class.
- 44). The butcher's neighbours the market/ The market neighbours the butcher's.
- 45). Abriga's withdrawal from the race surprised all the voters.
- 46). If you saved money in the bank, you

- would get capital to start a business.
- 47). Father doesn't have any data for internet connection, doesn't he?
- 48). Okumu wants to buy small new rectangular boxes.
- 49). The police did not protect the village and neither did they protect the town.
- 50). We haven't visited the museum for five years.

51

- a). Mzee Bwonda attempted to marry off his 15 – year – old daughter.
- b). The unsuccessful ceremony occurred in Musheshe Village.
- c). The organisers of the marriage ceremony were arrested.
- d). The fact that the bride looked bigger than her age made it difficult for the villagers to know that she was not adult.
- e). The women had to break into the kitchen in order that had been prepared for the guests.
- f). The women carried the food from the kitchen in banana leaves.
- g). The convicts were sentenced to two years' imprisonment.
- h). (i) frightened/afraid (ii) tells/recounts/ details/ narrates/ sets forth/ gives an account of
- i). UNSUCCESSFUL MARRIAGE (CEREMONY)/ POLICE THWARTS/FOILS ILLEGAL MARRIAGE/ A NARROW ESCAPE

52

- a). The table is about the concerns reported by different pupils of Soduku Public School reported to their teachers in 2023.
- b). P3/Primary Three reported the most concerns to the head teacher.
- c). The fact that children are caned shows that there is violation of children's rights in this school.
- d). Kataike Juliana went to the head teacher's office because she was / had been locked up in a washroom.
- e). The head teacher received the most concerns in the third week.
- f). Ngandanda Bruno slapped a pupil according to the poem.
- g). Ten pupils reported their concerns that month.
- h). I think Draga Fred did not mention the thief because he didn't know his/her name.
- i). Vernacular speakers are made / forced / compelled to wear bark cloth(s) in the school.

- j). Mrs. Natate Zeulia, the head teacher at Soduku Primary School, recorded the pupils' concerns in the school.

53

- a). The writer's motherland is located located in Africa.
- b). The writer's welfare is assured in his country because there is plenty of enough food.
- c). When people don't have food, there is hunger/ people become hungry according to the poem.
- d). The writer of the poem is a Ugandan.
- e). Foreigners enjoy hospitality in the writer's country.
- f). Snow usually falls in Europe.
- g). South Sudanese are described as tall and black in the poem.
- h). This poem was written by a Ugandan.
- i). (i)wellbeing (ii) aliens / immigrants / non – natives / strangers / outlanders

54

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
d	f	b	i	g	j	c	a	h	e

55

- Writer's address.(own/ personal address)
 Date
 Salutation(Dear Uncle Bernard
 - Thank you for inviting me/ invitation for house the house warming ceremony.
 - I am writing to inform you why I couldn't/I am sorry I could not attend
 - Why I couldn't attend
 - congratulation
 - Thank you for saving money to build/ have such a house.
 - working hard at school for good PLE
 - promise to visit when we break up for holidays.
 Signing off e.g.: Your niece/ Yours affectionately/ your truly
 Name in small letters (first name)